

Panchasatpeeta Roopini		Raga:	dEvagAndhAram
Composer:	Mudduswamy Deekshitar	Tala:	Adi
*srsggm pdpnnS - S,ndp,m m,grs, OR s g2 m1 p n2 S - S n2 d2 p m1 g2 r2 s		Melakarta:	22nd Kharaharapriya
Note:	karnAtaka dEvagAndhAri is an altenrate name for this raga. The notes used are same as Abheri - however, the arohana/avarohana as indicated in Deekshitar's classification* scheme is different (ie., not the same as Abheri's scale of today). It is to be noted that Abheri uses 'd2' as it is sung today. Some musicologists say Abheri was earlier sung with 'd1', and thus different from what it is today. If this true, then dEvagAndhAram and Abheri were very distinct ragas in the olden days.
